Errata and Corrigenda to Excommunication for Debt in Late Medieval France (Cambridge University Press, 2016)

Tyler Lange
February 1, 2018 (updated April 21, 2021)

pg. 20   “differed” should read “deferred”

pg. 97   the labels in Figure 2.5 should be switched as follows:
          “Exc x 100” (the rising solid line) should read “Total Income”
          “Total Income” (the falling dashed line) should read “Exc x 100”

pg. 155  “8.6 percent” should read “18.6 percent”

pg. 157  “conflicts” should read “contracts”

pg. 158  “wook” in note 138 should read “wool”

pg. 166  “on November 18 at Rouen 1472” should read “on November 18, 1472 at Rouen”

pg. 200  “valued at 2st the boisseau” should read “valued at 2s 6dt the boisseau”

pg. 203  insert missing comma: “M, that is, the supply of bullion, or V, that is, population growth”

pg. 257  “beats” should read “beasts” pg. 280  in note 24, the correct page number for the quoted opinion of Lord Kenyon in E. P. Thompson’s article is 88, not 193