HSTCMP 485 A: Comparative Colonialism

Meeting Time: TTh 3:30pm - 5:20pm

Location: SMI 211

SLN: 16009

Joint Sections: 2016, autumn, CHID, 485, A

Instructor: Vicente L. Rafael
View profile

Catalog Description: Explores the historic roots and practices of colonialism throughout the world, focusing on the roles of nationalism, cosmopolitanism, and imperial domination. Treats colonialism as a world event whose effects continue to be felt and whose power needs to be addressed. Offered: jointly with CHID 485.

GE Requirements:
Individuals and Societies (I&S)
Writing (W)

Credits: 5.0

Status: Active

Last updated: January 10, 2018 - 9:52pm