HSTAA 231 A: Race and American History

Meeting Time: TTh 10:00am - 11:20am

Location: CDH 109

SLN: 15990

Instructor: Moon-Ho Jung

Catalog Description: Surveys United States history, by exploring how race has enabled conceptions of the American nation and shaped everyday practices and interactions among different peoples. How have racial concepts, representations, and practices fundamentally defined power dynamics in American culture? From slave revolts to the Black Lives Matter movement, how have organizations and individuals struggled to pursue racial justice?
