HSTAA 231 AF: Race and American History

Meeting Time: F 11:30am - 12:20pm

Location: PCAR 192

SLN: 16117

Catalog Description:
Surveys United States history, by exploring how race has enabled conceptions of the American nation and shaped everyday practices and interactions among different peoples. How have racial concepts, representations, and practices fundamentally defined power dynamics in American culture? From slave revolts to the Black Lives Matter movement, how have organizations and individuals struggled to pursue racial justice?

Status: Active

Last updated: May 7, 2019 - 9:31pm

Source URL: https://history.washington.edu/courses/2019/autumn/hstaa/231/af