HSTAA 231 AA: Race and American History

Meeting Time: F 8:30am - 9:20am

Location: **

SLN: 16235

Instructor: Anandi Bandyopadhyay

Catalog Description:
Surveys United States history, by exploring how race has enabled conceptions of the American nation and shaped everyday practices and interactions among different peoples. How have racial concepts, representations, and practices fundamentally defined power dynamics in American culture? From slave revolts to the Black Lives Matter movement, how have organizations and individuals struggled to pursue racial justice?

Status: Active

Last updated: September 23, 2020 - 9:13pm

Source URL: https://history.washington.edu/courses/2020/autumn/hstaa/231/aa