HSTAA 345 A: US Political and Economic History, 1920 - present

Meeting Time: TTh 3:30pm - 4:50pm

Location: CMU 230

SLN: 15478

Instructor: Margaret O'Mara

Catalog Description:
Places modern America in historical perspective, using primary and secondary historical sources to examine key people and events who made this history from the 1920s to the present. Themes include: changing role of government; electoral and partisan change; populism and grassroots activism; markets and corporations; labor force trends; and the social and political impact of technology. Cannot be taken for credit if credit received for HSTAA 235.

GE Requirements:
Individuals and Societies (I&S)