We are pleased to announce that in 2014-15 we are conducting searches for two tenure-track assistant professors. Both positions are full-time, nine-month appointments and will begin September 2015.

The first position is in the History of the Islamic World before 1850. The second position is a joint appointment between the Department of History and the Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies in the History of Late Imperial China (1300-1864).

Applicants should have the Ph.D. degree or foreign equivalent by the start of the appointment. Applications will be accepted until the positions are filled, but preference will be given to applications received by November 1, 2014.
