History classes among "Cool Courses for Winter 2021"

Submitted by Xiaoshun Zeng on November 2, 2020 - 2:14pm

Two history courses are selected for “Cool Courses for Winter 2021,” a feature story run by the UW College of Arts & Sciences. Check out these cool history courses for Winter 2021!

HSTLAC 280: Drug Wars in Latin America

How have regional and global politics and economics led some mood-altering substances to be legal while others have been criminalized throughout history? Learn how drug production and arrests in Latin America are related to race, class, and gender.

Professor Ileana Rodriguez-Silva

5 credits. DIV, I&S.

HSTAA 317: History of the Digital Age

Learn about the rise of the computer and its relationship to American political, economic, and social systems from the 1940s to today, providing a historical perspective for current debates on digital technology.

Professor Margaret O’Mara

5 credits. I&S.
People Involved: Ileana Rodriguez-Silva  Margaret O'Mara

News Category: Faculty and Staff  Teaching  Undergraduate

Related Fields: Latin America  Science and Technology  United States

Related Departments: Arts & Sciences

Department of History
University of Washington
318 Smith Box 353560
Seattle, WA 98195-3560

Phone: (206) 543-5790
Fax: (206) 543-9451
histmain@uw.edu

Source URL: https://history.washington.edu/news/2020/11/02/history-classes-among-cool-courses-winter-2021