Online Teaching Resources and Best Practices

This page will be updated throughout March with resources and recommendations for moving courses online during the COVID-19 outbreak.

The history department staff has prepared the following guides to assist faculty in preparing for online teaching:

Teaching Online, 101: A Guide for History Department Instructors

- Overview: Introduction & Perspectives
- Communicating with students using Canvas
- Delivering lectures online
- Leading discussions online
- Assigning papers, quizzes & exams online

Contact the History Department tech support team:

Kristin Roberts, krisrob7@uw.edu
Eric Johnson, ejred@uw.edu
Alexandra Colley, alexc09@uw.edu

Please refer to the UW Center for Teaching & Learning's website for further resources and helpful links.

UW-IT is also an excellent resource for learning the basics of Canvas, Panopto, Zoom, and other teaching technologies. Sign up for UW-IT's Teaching Technologies Workshops or office hours or read their helpful guide on conducting classes online.

Other Canvas resources:

- Canvas Main Page at UW IT Connect
- Canvas Tutorials from UW Bothell

Department of History
University of Washington
318 Smith Box 353560
Seattle, WA 98195-3560