Cardiff University in Wales

Next offered:
Autumn 2019

Our departmental exchange program with Cardiff University is a wonderful opportunity for students to study side-by-side with UK students in the Welsh capitol! Established in 1883, Cardiff University offers UW students a wide variety of courses (called “modules”), in the College of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences. The Department of History application for this program opens in late January each year and on alternating years (next is 2019-2020), a nomination from the Department of History carries with it a scholarship to be used toward study and living expenses. Competitive applicants should have completed 90 credits and have a GPA of 3.0 or higher. A letter of recommendation will be required as well. Please make an appointment with an advisor for more information!

The application period for study abroad in Cardiff Autumn 2019-Spring 2020 is now available by clicking here. Please note that you must have a UW NetID in order to log in. Applications are due January 15, 2019.

For general questions about Study Abroad credit, please contact the History Undergraduate Advising Office.
